2007 Asian Products Source Guide

A LOOK AT SOME PLAYERS IN ASIA'S EMERGING GLASS INDUSTRY

Over the past few years China and other Asian countries have quickly advanced as players in all aspects of the worldwide glass and fenestration industries. From glass fabricators and manufacturers to machinery, equipment and tools suppliers Asian companies are offering all of the products that other companies around the globe are producing.

To give you an idea of who some of these companies are, we've compiled our first ever Asian Products Source Guide. Here you'll find detailed company and product information for just some of the Asian companies that are working in the glass and fenestration industries.

If you would like to be included in next year's listing, please email your company name, address, phone and fax numbers, website and a brief description of the products you produce to egiard@glass.com.
